

H-R January 28, 1981
Ted Reavis rites today

Byron "Ted" Reavis, 72, of 713 Center St. died Saturday at his home of an apparent heart attack. Jan. 23

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Sam Reaves, pastor of the Grinnell Assembly of God Church, officiating. Organist was Kathleen Heffner. Pallbearers were Donald Louden, Gene Shook, Willard Robison, Michael Reavis, Robert Bryan and Charles Gilliland. Honorary bearers were Webb Wallace, Lester Tharp, Russ Koger, Harold Fetzer and Robert Hamilton. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The son of Grant and Margaret Eva Fry Reavis, he was born July 28, 1909, in Grinnell. Mr. Reavis was a carpenter and plumber and also worked in roofing and other repair. He was a member of the Cedar Rapids Moose Lodge.

Survivors include his stepson, Andrew Davis of Plano, Ill., and his brothers and sisters, Glenn Reavis of Grinnell, Gertrude Houck of Porthill, Idaho, Lela Anderson of Sacramento, Calif., Russell Reavis of Hanover Park, Ill., George Reavis of Grinnell, Wilma Matheny of Springtown, Texas, and Wilbur Reavis of San Francisco, Calif. He was preceded in death by his wife, Sara Jane May Davis; his parents; and two brothers, Maurice Reavis and Clarence Reavis.