-On Saturday at the Methodist church at Blue Point occurred the funeral over the remains of Frank Allen Reed, who was killed by falling while unloading hay on Nov. 7, at Walla Walla, Wash. The deceased was born in this county on February 23, 1868 and so was in his thirtyninth year. Of the family of six brothers and two sisters all but one brother survive him. All were present at the funeral excepting Frank W. Reed, who lives at Wrenshall, Minn. Those present were his sisters, Mrs. W. A. Taylor of Washington township, Mrs. T. E. Applegate of Norcatur, Kas., and his brothers William J. and Albert E. of near New Sharon, and Edward C. who lives near St. Louis. At the time of his death he was alone and when found had suffered a broken neck from his fall.
