

Bert Renaud

Bert Renaud, 89, of the New Sharon Care Center, a former resident of Sully, died Thursday, Dec. 26, at Mahaska County Hospital in Oskaloosa.

Funeral services were conducted Dec. 30 in the chapel of Van Dyk-Duven Funeral Home in Pella, with the Rev. Norman Channel and Leo Renaud officiating. Organist was Kris Harms. Casket bearers were family members Brian Channel, David Wright, Dean Renaud, Greg Renaud, Glenn Vanderpol and Kenneth Hackert.

Burial was in Sully Cemetery

The son of Harry C. and Cecelia Vande Krol Renaud, he was born Aug. 19, 1907, near Sully. He was married to Gertrude Vander Pol June 11, 1930, in Sully.

Mr. Renaud was a trucker and eventually became associated with Macy Stockyards, retiring as a partner with his brother-in-law, Bryce Macy.

He continued to live in Sully until his wife's death in 1984, then lived at various locations before moving to Pella.

Surviving are one daughter, Muriel Channel of Fairfield; six grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; two sisters, Edna Sears of Newton and Rosetta Lamphier of Mountain Home, Ark.; and two brothers, Clarence of Sully and Charles of Wilcox, Ariz.

He was preceded in death by his wife; one son, Verlan; a sister, Viola Van Kampen; and two brothers, Harley and Vernie.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Free Methodist Church of Fairfield.

Albert Renaud, 89

Albert "Bert" Renaud, New Sharon, died on Thursday, Dec. 26, at the Mahaska County Hospital in Oskaloosa.

Funeral services were held on Monday, Dec. 30 at the chapel of Van Dyk-Duven Funeral Home in Pella. Officiating was the Rev. Norman Channel and Mr. Leo Renaud spoke. Mrs. Kris Harms was the organist. Music selections were "Life At Best is Very Brief" and "O! For the Robe of Whiteness" sung by Norman Channel. Casket bearers were members of the family: Brian Channel, David Wright, Dean Renaud, Greg Renaud, Glenn Vanderpol and Kenneth Hackert. Burial was in the Sully Cemetery in Sully.

Albert Renaud was born on August 19, 1907 in Jasper County, near Sully. He was the son of Harry C. and Cecelia Vande Krol Renaud. Bert, as he was known, was united in marriage with Gertrude Leona Vander Pol on June 11, 1930, at Sully and to this union two children were born. They were Muriel Joan and Verlan Ross. Following their marriage, they farmed near Sully until 1936. It was at this time they moved into Sully. Bert then began trucking. He eventually became associated with Macy Stockyards and retired as a partner with his brother-in-law, Bryce Macy. Bert and Gertrude continued to live in Sully the remainder of their married lifetime, where they were living when she passed away February 18, 1984. Following her death, Bert made his residence various places after moving to Pella. He most recently was a resident of the New Sharon Care Center in New Sharon. At an early age, Bert accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior and his desire was to see others come to Christ.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Gertrude; his son, Verlan R. Renaud, who passed away Dec. 12, 1987; his daughter-in-law, Tobie Renaud; his parents; a sister, Viola Van Kampen; and two brothers: Harley Renaud and Vernie Renaud.

Bert is survived by his daughter, Muriel and her husband, Rev. Norman Channel of Fairfield; a daughter in law, Julie Knapp of Corona, Calif.; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild. They are: Brian and Tasha Channel and their daughter, Emily; Kim Channel; Tamra (Renaud) and David Wright; Tera Renaud; Douglas Knapp; and Eric Knapp. Of his original family, he is survived by two sisters and two brothers. They are Edna Sears of Newton; Rosetta Lamphier of Mountain Home, Ark.; Clarence (Ed) Renaud and his wife, Sylvia of Sully; Charles (Chuck) Renaud and his wife, Marge of Wilcox, Ariz.; a brother-in-law, Ben Van Kampen and a sister-in-law, Evelyn Renaud of Newton. • Memorials may be given to the Free Methodist Church in Fairfield.

H-R January 6, 1997

MR January 8, 1997