

H-R.

Thursday, April 4, 1963

Former Lynnville Resident Dies At Oakland Wednesday

A former Lynnville resident, C. W. Renaud, died suddenly Wednesday morning at a restaurant in Oakland.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday from the Oakland Methodist church. Burial will be in a Council Bluffs cemetery.

Born in Lynnville on Jan. 7th, 1908, he was the son of Omar and Vina Renaud, and was a graduate of Lynnville high school. He had been employed as a soil conservationist for many years.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret; four daughters; five grandchildren; and five sisters, Mrs. Ray (Myrtle) Ver Steeg of Lynnville, Mrs. Glenn (Margaret) Lewis of Searsboro, Mrs. Frank (Inez) Dornsbaugh of Newton, Mrs. T. L. (Edna Mae) Link of Council Bluffs, and Mrs. John (Irene) Conn of Indianapolis, Ind.