

John Renaud

John Renaud, 50, Long Beach, Calif., died Monday, June 25, of cancer of the heart.

The body was cremated and memorial services will be held at a later date.

The son of Lloyd and Violet Houston Renaud, he was born July 1, 1939, in Grinnell. He attended Grinnell schools and graduated from Grinnell High School. Following the death of his mother in December, 1942, and his father in February, 1948, he made his home with his grandparents Earl and Lydia Renaud and his aunt, Dorothy Renaud, during the school year and with his other grandparents, John and Cora Houston, during the summers. Later he spent some summers with his uncle and aunt, Russ and Dorothy Houston.

Following his graduation from high school, he moved to California and lived with his uncle and aunt Kenneth and Becky Houston.

In 1983 he was married to Susan Jones.

He is survived by his wife Susan, Long Beach, and a son Gregory from a previous marriage.
