

CHARLIE REYNOLDS DIES

Mrs. Frank Gear tells us she recently received word of the death of her uncle, Charles Reynolds in Los Angeles a short time ago. He leaves a wife.

Everybody thirty to forty years ago knew Charlie, familiarly known as "Billy" and everybody liked him. He graduated from the high school in 1888 and a few years afterward moved to Ft. Dodge where he lived until about 1904 or 1905 when he went to Los Angeles.

He was a fine young man and many of us regret to learn of his death.
