

MRS. CHARLOTTE WHEELER REYNOLDS. 6-11-14 1905

Mrs. Charlotte Wheeler Reynolds was born in Kent, England, on March 9, 1833, and died on November 10, 1905, of liver trouble, at her home in this city.

She was married to William Elliott in London when twenty-five years of age and to this union were born three daughters. Mr. Elliott and two of the daughters died in England. In order to save the life of the remaining child she moved with her to this country where the daughter lived till twenty-nine years of age and left seven children at the time of her death.

Mrs. Elliott came direct to this city to the home of her sister, Mrs. E. Harrison, who was residing here at that time and after living here for about three years she was married to William Reynolds. One child, Charles Reynolds, of Fort Dodge was born to them and he survives the mother, the husband having died here about three years ago.

Services were held from her late residence at 327 Sixth avenue on Sunday afternoon at half past two, conducted by the Rev. G. M. Adams and the remains were laid to rest by loving hands in Hazelwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Reynolds was a good, kind, Christian woman, beloved by her family and held in the highest esteem by her many friends and neighbors. She was always ready to sacrifice her own comfort for her family who deeply cherish the sweet memory of her loving kindness to them and who possess the firm faith that she has passed to a better world and to a well deserved and rich reward.

Those present from out of town for the funeral services were the surviving son, Charles Reynolds, and wife of Fort Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds and two sons, Walter and Charlie, of Odebolt. The little granddaughter of the deceased who has been a source of comfort and joy to her during her last illness returns home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds.
