

Mrs. Naomi Rhinehart

(Gene)

Mrs. Naomi Rhinehart, 86, of Brooklyn, died Friday morning, Feb. 22, at Brookhaven Nursing Home, Brooklyn. Services for Mrs. Rhinehart were held 1:30 p.m. Monday at Nevenhoven Funeral Home. Rev. James B. Rea, Jr., pastor of First Presbyterian Church, officiated. The organist was Mrs. Sybil Kelley and "Beyond the Sunset" was a special selection. Casketbearers were Jim Manatt, Lilburn Klenk, Bernard Kriegel, Roger Hall, Dale Hall, and Marvin Read. Interment was in the Brooklyn Cemetery, Brooklyn.

A memorial fund has been established.

Naomi Margaret Wylie Rhinehart, eldest daughter of Robert and Ethel Jacobs Wylie, was born Oct. 24, 1904 on a farm near Brooklyn.

Mrs. Rhinehart received her education in a rural school. She lived all of her life in the Brooklyn area. She was united in marriage to Gene Walter Rhinehart in Hampton June 10, 1925. Mr. Rhinehart died in 1985.

Mrs. Rhinehart was a member of First Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are one daughter, Ula Jean, Mrs. Alvin Read of Ames; one son, Gaylon LaVern of Santa Clara, Calif.; two sisters, Ferne Myers and Thelma Wylie, both of Des Moines; 11 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and one sister, Ruth Hall.

BC February 22, 1991