

Death Summons

Fanny D. Rickard

Fanny D. Hull was born at Morris, Ill., Sept. 8, 1874, and died in Rapid City, S. D., Aug. 7, 1931, aged 56 years and 11 months.

She was married to Alvin R. Rickard at Grinnell June 10, 1895. She is survived by her husband, two sons, Myrle A. and his wife Mabel, and Chester M., and one daughter Cecile; also a brother, Sam Hull, and a sister, Mrs. Jennie Bean, both of Idaho.

Early in life she joined the church and has been a willing and efficient worker and member wherever she lived.

The family moved from Grinnell to South Dakota in 1898, living first at Harrisburg, then at Tulare, and moving to Peno Basin in 1908.

Mrs. Rickard has been active in all work for the good of the schools, churches and community having been president of the Woman's club and Ladies Aid at Grindstone. At the time of her death she was a member of the Grindstone Congregational church and superintendent of the Sunday school.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon, August 9, in the Methodist church, and interment was in the Quinn cemetery.

Thus has passed another Chester girl who was a good wife, mother and neighbor, and who helped develop three pioneer neighborhoods in our younger sister state.
