Mrs. Moses Robbins.

Angeline Dee, daughter of J. M. and Emeline Dee, was born in Sheridan township, Poweshiek county, Iowa, March 27, 1873. She was one of six children and is the fourth one to be taken by death.

She was married on January 6, 1898, to Moses Robbins, of Newburg. To this union were born five children, three of whom, are living. Charles Madison died when one year old and William McKinley at the age of seven years.

Mrs. Robbins is survived by her husband and three children, Gilmore, Harry Claire and Wilma Angeline, her father, J. M. Dee, of Tama, her sister, Mrs. Frank Wolcott, of Toledo, her brother, William H. Dee, of Sheridan, and numerous other relatives.

A loving wife and mother, a true helpmeet and a steadfast friend, Mrs. Robbins will be missed by all those with whom her gentle life came in contact.
