

Robert

8-4 Mrs. Mary J. Robinson, 1908

On Sunday afternoon, August 2, 1908 at the home of Mrs. Sadie Gregory at 911 West street, between the hours of one and two o'clock, Mrs. Mary J.

Robinson fell into the deep sleep that knows no awakening until the resurrection morn. She had been ill for more than three months and for the past few days had been an intense sufferer to whom the coming of death must have been a welcome release. She was patient and resigned to her suffering, believing it all to be for the best.

The deceased was born in Ohio, July 10, 1848. During her childhood she with her parents removed to Illinois, where she spent her youth and early womanhood and where she was married to Robert Robinson, November 26, 1866, after which they continued to live in Illinois until 1872, when they came to Iowa and settled on a farm near this city, which was their home until 1890, when they removed to this city.

The husband and two children had already preceded her to that far country from which no traveler returns.

The children, Mrs. Viola Onthank, near Grinnell, and Mrs. Grace Brown of Walla Walla, Wash., together with three sisters and two brothers, remain to mourn an irreparable loss.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. Arthur Hurley, Monday afternoon at 1:30, from Mrs. Robinson's sister's home, 911 West street. Interment was in Hazlewood cemetery.
