ROBERT ROBINSON.

Robert Robinson was born in Barn Co., Kentucky, in 1838. He came to Grinnell, Iowa, in 1870 and since resided here. Until a few years ago he was a prosperous and respected farmer and lived a few miles southwest of the city. Growing weary of farm life he moved to town and has resided in the city since with the exception of a year or two when he lived with his daughter on the western coast of the United States.

About eight years ago he joined the Baptist Church and has lived a consistent Christian life.

He died on Thursday, May 30, at the home of Dr. T. M. Hedges leaving two daughters, one in Walla Walla, Washington, and one, Mrs. C. H. Ontbank, of this city and a wife. One son who died in infancy and a daughter in young womanhood preceded him to the better world. The wife with whom he was united in 1866 and at whose home the funeral services were conducted resides in south Grinnell. The services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. G. E. Morphy and his remains laid to rest in Hazelwood cemetery.
