

Darline Rogers

(Frank)
Darline Rogers, 91, of North English, a native of Grinnell, died Wednesday, Feb. 16, at the English Valley Care Center in North English.

Funeral services were conducted Feb. 18 at the Powell Funeral Home in North English, with the Rev. Gilbert Hawkins officiating. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery, Grinnell.

Born March 25, 1902, in Grinnell, she was the daughter of Louis and Matilda Wold Shifflett. After graduating from Grinnell High School, she attended Cedar Rapids Business College and was employed in Chicago.

She was married to Frank Rogers Sept. 15, 1923, in Waterloo, N.Y. They lived in Oskaloosa, Vinton, Oelwein, Chariton, Leon and Omaha. She was a homemaker and served as a Gray Lady at the Chariton Hospital for eight years. She was also a member of Loving Chapel United Methodist Church in Leon.

Surviving are two sons, Arthur of Phillips, Wis., and Ronald of Estherville; three daughters, Doris McCartney of North English, Mary Johnson of Chilcoat, Calif., and Patricia Boyett of Tulsa, Okla.; 20 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; and one brother, Asher Shifflett of Carnegie, Pa.

She was preceded in death by her husband; one son, Francis Duane; two grandsons; and two brothers, Everett and Howard Shifflett.

A cousin, Mildred Paxson, lives in Grinnell.

H-R February 28, 1994

Darlene Rogers

Darlene Shifflett Rogers, 91, of North English, a native of Grinnell, died Wednesday, Feb. 16, at the English Valley Nursing Care Center where she had lived since October 1987.

Funeral services were conducted Friday at the Duvall Funeral Home in North English, with the Rev. Gilbert Hawkins of Pleasant Grove Brethren Church officiating. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery, Grinnell.

She was the daughter of Louis and Matilda Wold Shifflett and was born March 25, 1902, in Grinnell. After graduating from Grinnell High School, she attended Cedar Rapids Business College and later was employed as a secretary in Chicago.

She was married to Frank Rogers Sept. 15, 1923, in Waterloo, N.Y. She remained a homemaker. The family lived in Oskaloosa, Vinton, Oelwein, Chariton, Leon and Omaha, Neb. They also farmed for seven years near Albia.

Mrs. Rogers was a member of the Loving Chapel United Methodist Church in Leon and was active in the women's missionary society. She served for eight years as a Gray Lady in the Chariton hospital.

Surviving are two sons, Arthur of Phillips, Wis., and Ronald of Estherville; three daughters, Doris McCartney of North English, Mary Johnson of Chilcoat, Calif., and Patricia Boyett of Tulsa, Okla.; 20 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; and one brother, Asher Shifflett of Carnegie, Pa.

She was preceded in death by her husband; one son, Francis; two grandsons; and two brothers, Everett and Howard Shifflett.

H-R February 21, 1994