

H-R
November 8, 1982

Frank Rogers services held

Frank Rogers, 83, of Leon died Thursday, Nov. 4, at Westview Acres nursing care center, where he had lived since May 1980.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Loving Chapel United Methodist Church, Leon, with the Rev. Walter Bernard officiating. Pallbearers were his grandsons, Richard, Kevin and Stephen Rogers, Scott and Neil Boyett, and John McCartney.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery, Grinnell.

The son of George and Mary Ann Koontz Rogers, he was born Aug. 18, 1899, at his parents' farm home near Albia. He received his education in the rural Oakland school.

He was married to Darline Shifflett of Grinnell on Sept. 15, 1923, at Waterloo, N.Y. For 47 years he was employed as a meatcutter in supermarkets at Oskaloosa, Oelwein, Vinton, Chariton, Leon, and Omaha, Neb.

A member of the Loving Chapel United Methodist Church, he had also served on the church board. He was a member of the Lions Club.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Ronald of Estherville and Arthur of Marshalltown; three daughters, Doris McCartney of North English, Joyce Johnson of Chilcote, Calif., and Patti Boyett of Tulsa, Okla.; 20 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and three brothers, Ralph of Wyoming and Bob and Claus, both of Albia.

He was preceded in death by a son, Francis; a grandson; his parents and a sister.