

H-R November 29, 1976
Rites held for Norma Rose

Everett

Norma McLain Rose, 65, of Irvington, Ia., died unexpectedly Thursday, Nov. 4.

Funeral services were held in Algona, Ia., with burial at Laurel Hill Cemetery, Irvington.

The daughter of Alexander and Elizabeth Bell McLain, she was born May 4, 1911, at Manly, Ia. The family moved from Manly in the Mason City area to Irvington in 1918. She received her schooling in Mason City and Irvington schools.

In 1948, she was married to

Everett Rose at Vermillion, S.D.

Survivors include her two sisters, Mae McLain and Inez Roney, both of Irvington, and one grandson. Mrs. Rose was preceded in death by her husband in 1957; a daughter, Jeannie Abbott who died in 1958; a granddaughter; and her parents.

The elder McLains were former residents of Poweshiek County. Mrs. Bert Wells, Mrs. Fred Thompson and Hugh McLain are relatives of the deceased.