₁đ.

ve

a ,ft

88

ti-

ţo

ıt-

οť

ıt.

tу

iø

Our Country Correspondents Go After the News.—History as Recorded by Bucolic Gentlemen.- Neighborhood News Personal and General.

A PROMINENT MAN DIES.

Otto L. Roseman of Montezums was suddenly called to another world on Tuesday morning. While in attendance at the Odd Fellows grand lodge at Waterloo last week he was stricken with heart failure. He has not felt well since, but felt no uneasiness, and es passed away almost without warning. Orto L. Roseman was born in Germany in 1850. He moved to this country in 1871. In 1874 he was married to Miss Sarah Harter. In 1876 with his wife he moved to this county and engaged in farming in Deep River township. Later he secured a position in an abstract office in Montezuma and continued at that work until he was made deputy county treasurer under W. J. Johnson. e In 1890 he was elected county treasurer t- and for four years be filled that important office in a most acceptable manner. In 1891 he was chosen Grand Master of Iowa Odd Fellows and he served that order in that capacity in a manner creditable to himself and helpful to the order. Mr. Roseman was a most excellent citizen. He served this district as a member of the board of education, was mayor of the city for several terms, and he held numerous positions of honor and trust and in all of these he rendered most excellent and faithful service. He was a member of the M.E. church and for several years he was church treasurer. In every walk of life he performed his duty faithfully and well. He leaves behind a faithful wife and a son and daughter to mourn the lose of their companion and father. I The funeral occured from the family residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, sermon by Rev. E. C. Brooks of Centerville.