

Carl W. Ross

services held

W-R March 12, 1984
Carl Wesley Ross, 50, of Unionville, Mo., formerly of Grinnell, died of an apparent heart attack Feb. 26 at the home of his mother.

Funeral services were conducted Feb. 29 at the Broadlawns Funeral Home in Unionville, with the Rev. Barry Black officiating. Burial was in Mitchell Cemetery east of Omaha, Mo.

He was born near Omaha, Mo., on Nov. 28, 1933. He grew up and attended school in Grinnell, graduating from high school here. He enlisted in the U.S. Air Force in 1952, serving four years, including a tour of duty in Romanz off Alaska. He was a truck driver and carpenter.

He was married to Shirley Ann Hoehn on Nov. 26, 1955.

Mr. Ross is survived by his mother, Laona I. Ross of Unionville; two sons, Carl Dean and Randy Jay; one daughter, Jody Lynn; one grandson; one brother, Clarence J. Ross of Kansas City, Kan.; and two sisters, Carol Liles of Angleton, Texas, and Karen Anglin of Kansas City, Mo.

He was preceded in death by his father, Clarence E. Ross, and an infant sister, Melba Fern.