Frank W. Roth, 65, of Rte. 1, LaGrange, Ill., and a former resident of Grinnell, died late Wednesday evening at Cook County Hospital in Chicago, Ill., where he had been a patient the past two weeks.

Requiem High Mass will be held at 9 a.m. Monday with the Rev. Joseph J. Fath of St. Joseph's church in Preston, Iowa, officiating. Rosary services will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell.

Born in Germany on Feb. 6, 1895, he moved to Brooklyn when 17 years old. He was united in marriage with Louise Fogel at Brooklyn on April 17, 1918.

To this union were born six children: Mrs. John (Frances) Thompson Jr., Rte. 2, Grinnell; Mrs. Sherill (Helen) Lynch, LaGrange, Ill.; Arthur Joseph Roth, Ellinburg, Wash.; James A. Roth, Des Moines; Raymond L. Roth, Lamont, Ill., and Frank Roth Jr., Casper, Wyo.

After their marriage, the family moved to a farm northwest of Grinnell. In 1934 they moved to Grinnell to make their home until 1952 when he and Mrs. Roth moved to LaGrange, Ill.

Mr. Roth operated a stock trucking business in Grinnell on south West St. Recently he had been employed as a carpenter in the Chicago area. When in Grinnell he was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church and a charter member of the Eagles Lodge.

He is survived by his widow, six children, 26 grandchildren, and two half-sisters, Mrs. Henry Kriegel of Grinnell, and Mrs. Bert Keeney of Portland, Ore.
