

Logan Kinnick Roudabush

Logan Kinnick Roudabush, son of Eric Roudabush and Virginia Clayton Roudabush of Greenfield, Ind., was stillborn at Community Hospital North in Indianapolis, Ind., on Wednesday, Aug. 9, 2000, and weighed 9 pounds, 6 ounces. Memorial services were held Thursday, Aug. 10, at Post Road Christian Church in Indianapolis. Pastor Doug Carter officiated, with assistance from Brother David Bosley, and music provided by Brian Donaldson.

Graveside funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, Aug. 12, at Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery, with the Rev. John Epperson, pastor of Grinnell Christian Church, officiating.

A Celebration of Life service was then held at the Madison Church of Christ, with Pastor Epperson, assisted by Pastor Dennis Smith, officiating. Patty Lang provided music, "When Answers Aren't Enough," "Jesus Loves Me," and "With Hope."

Logan was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Roger E. Clayton.

Surviving are Logan's parents; his brother, Nile; and sisters Miranda Ruth and Mallory Megan, all of Greenfield, Ind.; his grandparents, Carol and Loren Roudabush and Helen and Malcom Mayo, all of Brooklyn; great-grandmothers, Ruth Roudabush and Miriam Andes, both of Brooklyn; and godparents, Jody and Chris Roudabush of Grinnell.

A memorial fund has been established and may be left with the Nevenhoven Funeral Home.

Logan K. Roudabush

Logan Kinnick Roudabush, son of Eric and Virginia Clayton Roudabush, Greenfield, Ind., formerly of Brooklyn, was stillborn Aug. 9, 2000, at Community Hospital North in Indianapolis. He weighed 9 pounds, 6 oz.

Memorial services were held Thursday, Aug. 10, at Post Road Christian Church in Indianapolis. Officiating was Pastor Doug Carter assisted by Brother David Bosley with music by Brian Donaldson. A graveside service was held Saturday, Aug. 12, at Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery with Pastor John Epperson officiating. A "Celebration of Life" service at Madison Church of Christ followed, with Pastor Epperson officiating assisted by Pastor Dennis Smith. Music by Patty Lang included "When Answers Aren't Enough," "Jesus Loves Me" and "With Hope." A Logan Kinnick Roudabush Memorial Fund has been established.

He is survived by his parents, Eric and Virginia Roudabush, Greenfield; one brother Nile Clayton Roudabush; two sisters, Miranda Ruth and Mallory Megan Roudabush; his grandparents Helen and Malcom Mayo and Carol and Loren Roudabush, all of Brooklyn; his great grandmothers, Miriam Andes and Ruth Roudabush, both of Brooklyn, and his godparents, Jody and Chris Roudabush, Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Roger E. Clayton.