Sadie Saffield
Services Sunday

Sadie, daughter of Joseph and Orpha Goodwin Saffield, was born Mar. 13, 1879, and died Mar. 16 in an Oskaloosa nursing home at the age of 81. She taught in Mahaska and Poweshiek county rural schools for 24 years.

Following the death of her mother in 1910, she and her sister Emma moved to Deep River to make a home for their father. Following his death she remained to care for her sister. She was active in the Methodist church, serving as Sunday school superintendent and secretary. She was a member of the Women's Society for Christian Service.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Deep River Methodist church, conducted by Rev. William Rieckhoff. Mrs. Nardine Barthelman, accompanied by Mrs. Nellie Doonan, sang "When They Ring Those Golden Bells" and "Beautiful Garden of Prayer".

Interment was in Goldenrod cemetery under direction of the Steffy Funeral Home. Casket bearers were Wendell McLain, P.J. Icenbice, Leland Winegarden, William Schrader, Paul Light and Evan Elliott.
