

Chas. L. Sanders Was Prominent Modesto Rancher

Alvin Armstrong has received from his daughter in California newspaper clippings regarding the death of Charles L. Sanders, which was mentioned in these columns a few days ago.

Mr. Sanders had been a resident of Modesto for thirty-five years and was a prominent rancher of that district, being a charter member and vice president of the California Fruit Exchange there. He was president of the Modesto branch of the Federal Land Bank and was a member of the California Canning Peach Growers Association, California Prune and Apricot Association and the Stanislaus County Farm Bureau.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Mary Sanders, he leaves three children, Margaret L. Sanders, Caroline E. Sanders and G. Randolph Sanders and a brother, W. S. Sanders, all of Modesto.

Funeral services were conducted from the Shannon Chapel in Modesto by the Rev. T. Ross Paden, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Sanders was a member.
