

J. H. SANDERS DIES

One of Pioneers of This Community
 Died Friday Night in California.
 6-20-1922
 HAD BEEN WITH HIS SON
 EDWIN IN CHOWCHILLA

Body Will Reach Here Thursday
 Night—Funeral Services
 Friday.

Word received in Grinnell Saturday announced the death of J. H. Sanders Friday night in Chowchilla, Calif., where he had been at the home of his son Edwin. Mr. Sanders and daughter Annie went to California early in the spring. Edwin and Annie are accompanying the body back to Grinnell and are expected here Thursday night. The funeral will be held Friday at the home, 213 East street, but more definite arrangements have not been made as yet.

Mr. Sanders was the last of the three Sanders Brothers, who were closely associated with the up building of the Grinnell community almost from the very first. The other brothers were D. A. Sanders and Lucius Sanders and for a long time the Sanders Bros. farm northwest of Grinnell was famous throughout the whole countryside. As advancing years came on the three retired from the farm and moved to Grinnell. All three were upright and worthy men; of the sort who helped establish the ideals of Grinnell. The passing of the last of the three is worthy of more than a passing comment.

 Last of Well Known Sanders Brothers
 Laid to Rest in Hazelwood.

Joseph Howard Sanders was born in New Ipswich, N. H., July 20, 1836 and died in Chowchilla, Calif. June 15, 1922, lacking a month of being 86 years of age. He worked in the tinning and brass finishing business when a young man until the Civil War during which time he served the United States government in North Carolina in the commissary department. He was sent home on sick leave and in March 1864 near the close of the war came to Grinnell.

He was associated with two brothers and a sister in the hotel business and later engaged in farming on what was long known as the Sanders brothers' farm in Southwest Chester township. He was married in 1866 to Bessie Taylor of Manchester, Vermont, and to this union were born three children: One, Harry, died in childhood. Mrs. Sanders preceded her husband in death, having passed away August 21, 1912.

He was compelled to leave the farm on account of his health in 1901 and then made his home in Grinnell. He is survived by his children Edwin Sanders, of Chowchilla, Calif., and Miss Annie Sanders, of Grinnell.

Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon from the residence on East street, by Rev. C. A. Cafman. Many friends were in attendance to pay a tribute of respect to his memory and to extend sympathy to the bereaved.

The pall bearers were: John Goodfellow, R. G. Coutts, A. A. Foster, O. J. Worcester, George Hamlin, and Charles Peterson.
