

Frank Scammon 6-14 2-12-1932 Passes Away

Frank Scammon, father of Mrs. A. L. Frisbie, passed away Wednesday night in Minneapolis, where he has been for the past two years or more with his son, Hugh. Although he has been in steadily failing health for some months his last illness was of brief duration. Only a few days ago he very happily celebrated the passage of his eighty-fifth birthday.

Mr. Scammon was well known in Crinnell, having made his home here for several years with his daughter. Born in Saco, Maine, he came to Iowa in his young manhood, after completing a period of service in the United States Navy, which took him all over the world. The memory of his cruises and of his friendship with Admiral Bob Evans were among the fondest memories of his later life.

He was one of the pioneer edi-
