ELEANOR SCHLESSELMAN
nov. 5, 1986

Eleanor Eileen Schlesselman, 71, of Deep River, died Oct. 26, 1986 at University Hospitals in Iowa city and her funeral was Oct. 29 at United Church in Deep River. The Rev. Mary Margaret Thiel officiated and burial was in Golden Rod Cemetery in Deep River.

Carol Dale and Ellen Maxwell were vocalists and Verla Van Dee was organist. Ed Hopwood was honorary casket bearer and bearers were Bryan Greene, Brant Greene, Michael Tarvin, Steve Criswell, LaVerne Schlesselman and Carl Schlesselman. Flower attendants were Eileen Elliott, Virginia Pierce and Marjorie Byers.

Mrs. Schlesselman was born July 15, 1915 near Victor and was the daughter of Harry M. and Bertha Ocheltree Price. She attended Warren No. 6 school and graduated from Victor High School in 1933. She attended summer classes at Iowa State Teachers College in Cedar Falls and taught in Warren Township rural schools for three years.

On July 4, 1937, she married Walter Schlesselman of Deep River at St. James Lutheran Church at Victor. They moved to a farm near Deep River. They joined the Methodist church in Victor and on Jan. 15, 1950, joined the Presbyterian Church, now United Church of Deep River. In 1969 the family moved into Deep River. She was a member of American Legion Auxiliary, Pleasant Ridge Club, So and Sew Club and Ladies Aid Society.

She is survived by her children and their spouses, Virginia and Jarold Greene of Victor and Jack and Judy Schlesselman of Belle Plaine; eight grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; a sister, Emily Hopwood of Deming, N.M., and a brother, Melvin Price of Victor. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband on Sept. 18, 1985; and an infant sister, Margaret.

Schlesselman
Service Oct. 29
October 29, 1986

ELEANOR SCHLESSELMAN

Mrs. Eleanor Schlesselman, 71, of Deep River, died Oct. 26 at University Hospitals, Iowa City. She was the widow of Walt Schlesselman.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Jarold (Virginia) Greene of Victor; a son, Jack of Belle Plaine; a sister, Emily Hopwood of Demming, N.M.; a brother, Melvin Price of Victor; eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Services are Oct. 29 at the Deep River United Church, and burial will be in Golden Rod Cemetery.