

Glorene E. Schlesselman

Glorene E. Schlesselman, 72, of Grinnell died of pneumonia Monday, June 18, at University Hospitals in Iowa City.

No services are planned. Burial will be in Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

She was born June 11, 1929, in Guernsey to Peter H. and Elizabeth K. Gauch Schlesselman. She was raised in Guernsey and graduated from Marengo High School in 1946. She also attended Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kan.

Following her education, she returned to Guernsey to care for her parents. She moved to Grinnell in 1967 and worked for 25 years as a desk clerk at the former Best Western Motel. She suffered a stroke in 1993 and had resided at the Belle Plaine Nursing and Rehabilitation Center for the past few years.

She is survived by two half-sisters, Alphond Timm of Baxter and Nettye Kimberley of Grinnell, and one half-brother, the Rev. Wyatt Kimberley of Athens, Ga.
