

Schwiebert Rites Here Wednesday

J. feed

Last rites for Mrs. J. F. Schwiebert were conducted Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at Grace Methodist church in charge of the Rev. C.W. Woollard. Leo Shuler was organist.

Interment was in I.O.O.F. cemetery with grandsons, John and Robert Rapp, John Schwiebert and Kenneth Suttan, and nephews Lloyd and H. Art Schwiebert serving as pallbearers. Floral arrangements were in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Patten and Mr. and Mrs. John Belland.

Mrs. Schwiebert, 81, died Sunday evening at Allen Memorial hospital in Waterloo where she had been a patient for six days. Her death resulted from complications following a broken hip.

Meta Margaret Schwiebert, daughter of Diederich and Metta Intemann, was born April 18, 1881, on a farm southeast of Victor, and died Sept. 2, 1962.

On December 17, 1902, she married J. Fred Schwiebert at the home of her parents south of Victor. Two children were born to the couple.

Mrs. Schwiebert was an active member of the Methodist church for many years, first at the Victor Immanuel church and later transferring her membership to the Brooklyn church when the family came here to live in 1935.

Since her husband's death in 1954, she had spent most of her time with her daughter in Cedar Falls. For the past two years she had been a patient at East First Street Nursing home in Waterloo.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Laura Rapp of Cedar Falls; one son, Clarence H. of Brooklyn; seven grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband and two brothers.
