

Margaret Scott

(Walter Thomas)

Mrs. Margaret Scott, 89, of Lancaster, Mo., a former resident of Brooklyn, died Saturday evening, May 20 in Grim-Smith Hospital, Kirksville, Mo.

Services for Mrs. Scott were held at 11 a.m., May 23, in the Nevenhoer Funeral Home, Brooklyn. Rev. James B. Rea, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, officiated. The organist was Mrs. Jan Read. Casket bearers were Raymond Kalinay, Wallace Scott, John Little, Harry Kilmer, Jr., Dean Montgomery and Max Montgomery. Interment was in the Brooklyn Cemetery.

Margaret Christine Antheunis Scott, daughter of Peter and Clementine Soer Antheunis was born at Chelsea, June 22, 1905. She received her education in a rural school. On June 23, 1942, she was united in marriage to Walter Thomas Scott in Lancaster, Mo. They made their home in Brooklyn. Mr. Scott died in Jan. of 1985, and in May of 1990 she moved to Lancaster.

Surviving are one daughter, Helen Dean of Lancaster; two grandchildren, Dennis Dean of Lancaster and Connie Bennett of Wichita Falls, Texas; and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Scott was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, two brothers, and one sister.