

Lawrence E. See, 77

Lawrence E. (Playmore) See, 77, of Malcom died Sunday, June 21, 1998.

Funeral services were June 24 at the Westfield Cemetery, south of Grinnell

Officiating at the graveside rites was Carol Wehr of Malcom's United Methodist Church.

Music was "Beyond the Sunset" and "In the Garden." David Story, Preston Shaw, Don Gay, Junior Sharp, John Hasley and Jerry Helleso were casket bearers.

Lawrence was born July 21, 1920, in Des Moines, the son of Missouri Jackson See and Rose Minnie Kahler See. He spent most of his boyhood years in the Des Moines area.

On January 25, 1941 he married Bertha Trease, with whom he had two sons, Lawrence Bernard See and Marion Floyd See. They lived in the Grinnell area for 30 years.

They later moved back to Des Moines, where Lawrence worked for Urbandale Schools for 18 years, retiring in 1983.

After retiring, the Sees moved back to the Grinnell area.

Lawrence was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Marion.

He is survived by his wife, Bertha of Malcom; two sons, Lawrence of Houston and Marion of Malcom; eight grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, two sister, Evelyn Mitchell of Nashua, N.H. and Betty Bullers of Grinnell, other relatives and many friends.

Lawrence E. See

Funeral services were held Wednesday, June 24, at the Westfield Cemetery, south of Grinnell for Lawrence E. "Playmore" See, 77, of Malcom, who died Sunday, June 21, 1998. Carol Wehr of the United Methodist Church of Malcom officiated. Music was "Beyond the Sunset" and "In the Garden." David Story, Preston Shaw, Don Gay, Junior Sharp, John Hasley and Jerry Helleso were casket bearers.

Lawrence was born July 21, 1920, in Des Moines, the son of Missouri Jackson See and Rose Minnie Kahler See. He spent most of his boyhood years in the Des Moines area.

On Jan. 25, 1941, he married Bertha Trease, with whom he had two sons. They lived in the Grinnell area for 30 years.

They later moved back to Des Moines, where Lawrence worked for Urbandale Schools for 18 years, retiring in 1983.

After retiring, the Sees moved back to the Grinnell area.

Lawrence was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Marion. He is survived by his wife, Bertha, of Malcom; two sons, Lawrence of Houston and Marion of Malcom; eight grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Evelyn Mitchell of Nashua, N.H., and Betty Bullers of Grinnell; other relatives and many friends.

Lawrence E. See

Lawrence E. See, 77, of Malcom died of cancer Sunday, June 21, at his home.

Graveside services were conducted Wednesday morning at Westfield Cemetery south of Grinnell, with Carol Wehr of the Malcom United Methodist Church officiating. Casket bearers were David Story, Preston Shaw, Don Gay, Junior Sharp, John Hasley and Jerry Helleso.

He was the son of Missouri Jackson and Rose Minnie Kahler See and was born July 21, 1920, in Des Moines. He spent most of his boyhood in the Des Moines area.

He was married to Bertha Trease Jan. 25, 1941, and they lived in the Grinnell area for 30 years. They later moved back to Des Moines, where Mr. See worked for the Urbandale schools for 18 years, retiring in 1983. They then returned to the Grinnell area.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Lawrence of Houston, Texas, and Marion of Malcom; eight grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Evelyn Mitchell of Nashua, N.H., and Betty Bullers of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Marion.

MR June 24, 1998

BC July 1, 1998