

Mrs. Ed Severe
Of Brooklyn ^{G-4}
Dies Suddenly
4-9-1935

(From The Brooklyn Chronicle)

The death of Mrs. Ed Severe which occurred very suddenly last Friday morning, was a shock to the whole community. Mrs. Severe died as the result of thrombosis of the blood in the coronary arteries.

She arose as usual Friday morning and Mr. Severe came to his work at the Grieve & Ecklund store. In a half hour or so he was notified that she was dead. She was seized very suddenly with an attack and died in a few minutes.

Mrs. Severe has lived most of her life in Brooklyn and has always seemed to enjoy good health. This winter she fell on the ice and broke her ankle but was making a good recovery from the accident when her death occurred.
