

Rites Held for William Shadley

4-12 519 173
Funeral services for William Shadley, 81, who died May 6 at Friendship Manor, Grinnell, were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 9, at Steffy Funeral Home in Montezuma.

The Rev. Lester Hall officiated, and organist was Mrs. Jack Ramsey. Pallbearers were Ralph Wells, Don Hall, Gordon Braley, Marion Palmer, T.C. Ross, and Ronald Bates. Honorary pallbearers were Marvin Ramsey, Fred Yount, H.L. Dieterich, Lauren Wright, and Everett Johnston.

Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery.

The son of William and Rosalinda Knapp Shadley, he was born Feb. 14, 1892, in New Sharon. He attended school in New Sharon and joined the Friends church there.

On April 26, 1913, he was married to Bessie Banks. The couple had five children.

Survivors include his wife; four children, Bayard M. of Osceola, Karl E. of Glendora, Calif., Norma Jean McKee of Montezuma, and Leah Mae Rupp, a daughter-in-law, Hazel Shadley of Deep River; 15 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Knight of Pierpont, S.D., and Mrs. Nellis Hicks of Seal Beach, Calif.; and a brother, Clarence Shadley of Waterloo.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, William R. Shadley; and four sisters.