Lois R. Hofer Shaffer, daughter of Joe and Carrie Hofer, was born near Garwin, March 25, 1910.

She received her education in rural school and the Garwin High School. On Feb. 13, 1930, she was united in marriage to Claude William Shaffer in the Little Brown Church at Nashua. They farmed east of Kent Chapel for many years. After their retirement they continued to live on the farm. Mr. Shaffer died in 1982 and in 1987 she became a resident of Brookhaven Nursing Home.

Mrs. Shaffer was a member of the Congregational Bible Church of Hartwick and for many years was a member of the Kent Ladies Aid. Lois helped with congregate meals in Brooklyn and enjoyed playing the piano.

Surviving are two daughters, Ramona (Mrs. Richard Carpenter) of Marshalltown, and Bonnie, (Mrs. Earl Creps) of Malcom; one sister, Alverda Campbell of San Antonio, Texas; seven grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandson.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, two sisters, and two brothers.

CORRECTION

In last week's obituary column, the name of Ferne Saylor's husband was incorrectly printed. She was the widow of Harold "Bud" Saylor.
