
Margaret Shank

Margaret Shank, 89, of Black Hawk, S.D., formerly of Kellogg, died Monday, Dec. 8, at Rapid City Regional Hospital in Rapid City, S.D.

The Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Friday at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Grinnell, with the Rev. William Reynolds officiating. Music will be provided by St. Mary's Choir and organist Kyle Szary. Burial will be in Hickory Grove Cemetery near Newburg.

Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home beginning at noon Thursday. The family will be present at the funeral home from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday.

She was born Nov. 21, 1908, in Brooklyn. She attended school in Rhodes. She was married to J.R. Goodrich in 1929, and they lived in Newton.

During World War II, she worked in a war plant and One Minute Washing Machine Co. in Kellogg.

In 1949, she was married to Russell Shank, and the couple farmed north of Kellogg. She moved to Black Hawk in 1993 to be near her son.

Surviving are one son, Dean Goodrich of Black Hawk; six grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and two brothers, Lloyd Hauersperger of Kellogg and Sylvester Hauersperger of Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and one daughter, Louise Jeffreys.

Margaret Shank (Russell)

Funeral services were held Friday morning, Dec. 12, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Grinnell for Margaret Shank, 89, of Black Hawk, S.D., who died Monday, Dec. 8, 1997, at the Rapid City Regional Hospital in Rapid City, S.D.

The Rev. William Reynolds of St. Mary's officiated, and music was by Kyle Szary, organist, and St. Mary's choir, under the direction of Karen Town. Selections were "Be Not Afraid," "Seek Ye First," "Gift of Finest Wheat" and "How Great Thou Art."

Casketbearers were Mike Brown, Rick Brown, Mark Goodrich, Steven Goodrich, Jerry Hauersperger and Terry Jeffreys. Interment was in Hickory Grove Cemetery at Newburg.

Margaret was born on Nov. 21, 1908, at Brooklyn, to Adam and Elizabeth Kriegel Hauersperger. She received her education at Rhodes.

In 1929, she was married to J.R. Goodrich and the couple lived at Newton. During World War II, she worked in a local factory and later worked at the One Minute Washing Machine Company at Kellogg. She was married to Russell Shank in 1949 and the couple farmed north of Kellogg. In 1993, she moved to Black Hawk, S.D., to be near her son, Dean Goodrich.

She was preceded in death by her husband; one daughter, Louise Jeffreys; three brothers, Edward, Henry and Floyd Hauersperger; and two sisters, Ethel Holderness and Anna Brown.

She is survived by her son, Dean Goodrich of Black Hawk, S.D.; six grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and two brothers, Lloyd Hauersperger and Sylvester Hauersperger of Grinnell.

BC December 17, 1997