

e Striken the third time with paraly-s sis, H. H. Sharrar passed into the great beyond Sunday morning at two o'clock at his home on West Fourth street. He has been unable to work for some years as a result of two previous strokes. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his demise.
He was 45 years of age. ^{Brooklyn} 1-10-1905