Charlotte Sheehy Of Searsboro Dies Here Friday Eve

Timothy P.
Mrs. Charlotte Agnes Sheehy, 89, widow of Timothy Sheehy, former postmaster at Searsboro, died Friday evening at a Grinnell hospital. She had been in failing health the past two years.

Rosary was recited Sunday evening at the Smith Funeral Home and requiem high mass was held this morning (Monday) from St. Mary's Catholic church with the Rev. L. V. Kuebrich officiating.

Pallbearers were James Guthrie, Sr., Homer McDowell, William Schmidt, Bernard Schmitz, Roy Watson and Harley Walker. Burial was in Calvary cemetery at Searsboro.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Danforth, pioneer residents of Searsboro, she was born at Searsboro on June 6th, 1871. Their home was one of the first built in the Searsboro community and Mrs. Sheehy spent her entire life in that community, except for the last several years.

She attended the public schools and graduated from Searsboro high school.

In 1912 she was united in marriage with Timothy Patrick Sheehy, who preceded her in death in March of 1958. She is survived by two nephews, Frank K. Danforth of Alhambra, Calif., and Joseph Runyon of Pasadena, Calif.

Preceding her in death were her husband, parents, and two brothers, David and Frank Danforth, and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Runyon.

Mrs. Sheehy was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church in Grinnell and the former St. Brendan's parish in Searsboro.
