

Raymond

H-12 JANUARY 28, 1938
Edna Sheets services held

Edna Sheets, 73, of Brooklyn died Wednesday, Jan. 20, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the United Methodist Church in Malcom, with the Rev. William G. Schlobohm, pastor of the Malcom-Sheridan parish, officiating. Organist was Jo Ann Schneekloth. Pallbearers were Charles Sheets, Ivan Sheets, James D. Sheets, Loren Vogt, Gordon Rowe and Dale Wood. Honorary bearers were Howard Brimmer, George Henle and Harold Carlsen.

Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom, with the Nevenhoven Funeral Home of Brooklyn in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Henry and Etta Cook Vogt, she was born on June 27, 1914, in Marshall County. She was a graduate of Melbourne High School.

On May 25, 1938, she was married to Raymond Sheets in Gilman. They moved to a farm southeast of Malcom in 1938 and farmed until they retired and moved to Brooklyn.

Mrs. Sheets was a member of the Malcom United Methodist Church and the Social Circle Community Club.

She is survived by two brothers, Raymond Vogt of Haverhill and Ervin Vogt of Melbourne; a half-brother, Edward Vogt of Davenport; four sisters, Esther Connelly of Marshalltown, Ella Plummer of Melbourne, Irene Booth of Bella Vista, Ark., and Margaret Waltermeyer of Marshalltown; and a half-sister, LaDora Buck of California.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; two sisters, Maida and Minnie; and one brother, John, in infancy.

I
7
C
I
I