

Last Rites Monday For Mrs. M. C. Shupe

Mrs. M.C. Shupe, 55, wife of the Rev. M.C. Shupe, pastor of Epworth Methodist church in Council Bluffs, died last Friday in Nebraska Methodist hospital in Omaha following an extended illness.

She and the Rev. Mr. Shupe are former Brooklyn residents, leaving here in 1961. The latter was pastor of Grace Methodist church here for seven years.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2:00 p.m. at the Epworth Methodist church in Council Bluffs. Dr. J. Henry Teele, district superintendent of Methodist churches, officiated assisted by Dr. Everett Staats, pastor of Broadway Methodist church in Council Bluffs, and the Rev. Joe Henry, assistant pastor of Epworth. Interment was at Cedar Lawn cemetery in Council Bluffs.

She was a member of Chapter 131, Order of Eastern Star, of Brooklyn.

Survivors other than her husband include a son, Marion C. of Decatur, Ill.; a sister, Mrs. Alice Robinson of Des Moines; three brothers, Howard and Russell Vernon, both of Des Moines, and Paul Vernon of Norwalk; and a granddaughter.