

2-5 ELLSWORTH W. SIES. 1907

<sup>6-4</sup>
Ellsworth W. Sies was born in Johnson county January 16, 1870, aged thirty-seven years and fifteen days. He was married June 26, 1901, to Miss Hattie Smith of this city. His wife and son, little Ival, survives him to mourn the loss of a kind husband and indulgent father. His father F. O. Sies of Iowa City, brother, Clarence Sies of St. Louis and two sisters are the surviving members of his family. His mother died when he was thirteen years of age. After his marriage they removed to Moline Ill. where he has since resided and where he was a faithful employe of the C. R. I. & P. road. He met his death while in the discharge of his duties. The remains were brought here this morning for burial. The funeral services took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the M. E. church, Rev. J. M. Clelland in charge. Interment at Hazelwood.
