rites held for Bob Silvers

Funeral services were conducted February 3 for Robert Silvers, 34, who passed away February 1st after a very short illness. Rev. Charles Rinkel officiated at the 2:00 p. m. service held at the Taintor Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. William Smith of Keota. "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus," "Abide With Me" and the "Lord's Prayer" were sung by Homer McDowell accompanied by Carol Van Maanen.

Casket bearers were George Pinkerton, Keith Renaud, Dale White, Wilbur Van Dusseldorp, Henry Langstraat and Paul De Jong. Interment was in the Friends cemetery in New Sharon with the Harden Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Coffin Miller Post of the American Legion conducted the military rites at the grave.

Bob had been associated with his father-in-law Floyd Garner, Taintor, in farming, they were also a partnership in the breeding of pure-bred Brown Swiss cattle.

Bob will be well remembered in the Montezuma community.
