Rites At Kellogg Held Today For Mary Simpson, 72

Funeral services were held at Newton this afternoon (Thursday) for Mrs. Charles A. (Mary) Simpson, 72, of Kellogg, who died early Monday at a Grinnell hospital following an extended illness.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. Lyle S. Dunham, pastor of the Kellogg Methodist church. He was assisted by the Rev. Floyd Newbrough of the Colo Methodist church.

Private family burial services will be held Friday morning at Our Silent City cemetery at Kellogg.

The daughter of Volney and Lucie Phillips DeDiemar, she was born Dec. 25th, 1890, in Maywood, Mo. The family later moved to Milwaukee, Wis., where she received her education.

On March 14th, 1914, she was united in marriage with Charles A. Simpson at Milwaukee. They then moved to Kellogg where she had resided since.

Mrs. Simpson is survived by her husband, Charles of Kellogg; two daughters, Mrs. Charles L. Logan of New York City and Mrs. Robert N. Keen of Sacramento, Calif.; four grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Lottie Jeffery at Mt. Pleasant; and a brother, Lester DeDiemar of Yucaipa, Calif.

She was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers.

Mrs. Simpson was a member of the Kellogg Methodist church.
