MRS. CHARLES SLAGLE DIES
2-27-1923
Funeral Was Held From Rock Creek
Baptist Church Sunday.

Mrs. Mirtie Slagle, wife of Charles Slagle, died Friday at the Community Hospital of myocarditis. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Baptist church in Rock Creek township, conducted by Rev. C. A. Carman. Interment was in Rock Creek Cemetery. The family make their home on the Sullens farm, four miles this side of Kellogg on the River to River road. Mrs. Slagle was aged 35 years, 3 months and 26 days.

Mirtie Owens was born November 28, 1887, to Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Owens in Wayne county Kentucky, where she grew up and went to school. She was married Jan. 16, 1913 to Charles Slagle, to which union were born four sons, Harold Glen, Roy Leonard, William Lester and Lewis Gilbert, who, with the husband, survive her. One brother and several sisters are still living with their father in Kentucky. Her mother preceded her in death.

Mrs. Slagle joined the Methodist church in Kentucky while a girl and was interested in all good things.

Many friends of the family extend their sympathy in this bereavement.
