705 Plan Services
On Tuesday For
Beulah Slater

Beulah Slater, 92, of 1825 Sixth Ave., died Sunday morning at a local hospital where she had been a patient for the past two weeks.

Funeral services will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday from the Grinnell Methodist church with the pastor, the Rev. Chester Custer, officiating. Interment will be in Hazelwood cemetery with James-Schalinske Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Slater, she was born May 6th, 1882, at Harlan, Iowa. For the past 63 years she had lived in Grinnell and for a number of years was a beauty operator in this community.

She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star, Pythian Sisters, and the Methodist church.

Miss Slater is survived by her sister, Mrs. Evangeline Plum of Grinnell; two brothers, Harold B. Slater of Newton and Frank G. Slater of Cedar Rapids; and 12 nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death were two sisters, Mrs. Alda Goff and Mrs. Lulu Budd; and two brothers, Rollie G. Slater and Eber G. Slater.
