

H-12 September 6, 1982
Flora Slaven services set

Flora E. Slaven, 92, of 427 Park St., Grinnell, died of an apparent heart attack Wednesday evening, Sept. 1, at her home.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Robert C. Smith, pastor of the Grinnell First Baptist Church, officiating. Pallbearers will be Larry Clayton, Mike Clayton, Dennis McNurlen, James Reimers, David Slaven and Steve Slaven. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of George W. and Nancy Anderson Smith, she was born on April 5, 1890, in Wayne County, Ky. She was married to Wolford F. Slaven on Dec. 24, 1911, and the couple lived in Monticello, Ky., until coming to the Grinnell area in 1915. Mr. and Mrs. Slaven farmed in the Rock Creek, Gilman and Kellogg areas from 1923 to 1933 before coming to Grinnell.

Mrs. Slaven is survived by four children, Guy Slaven and Eugene Slaven, both of Grinnell, Thelma Winstead of Arlington, Va., and Helen Clayton of Des Moines; 16 grandchildren; 31 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1954; her parents; a daughter, Beulah Olson; a son, LeRoy; four brothers, Steve, Harvey, Jim Cal and John Smith; and two sisters, Delilah Walters and Elizabeth Barnett.

Wolford F.