

Slingluff rites held Jan. 11

H-R January 15, 1979

Raymond M. Slingluff, 85, of Gilman died Monday, Jan. 8, at the Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services for Raymond Slingluff were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Estel-Perrin Funeral Home in Marshalltown. Burial was in the Rose Hill Memorial Gardens in Marshalltown.

The Rev. Steve Mains of Le Grand Friends Church officiated at the services.

Born Oct. 18, 1893, in Minerva, Ohio, he was the son of Louis and Sadie Crowl Slingluff. He received his education in Ohio.

He married Birdie Smith of Montour on Dec. 23, 1914 in Toledo, Ia. They lived on a farm near Montour until moving to Gilman in 1962.

He is survived by his wife; three sons, Richard, Raymond and Rex Slingluff, all of Marshalltown; three daughters, Mrs. Carl (Mae) Kvinlaug of Gilman, Mrs. Carlton (Dorothy) Dobson of Nevada, and Mrs. Ned (Darlene) McCarger of Gilman; three sisters, Mrs. Erma Manfull of Montour, Mrs. Bessie Totten of Melvern, Ohio, and Mrs. Rofie Patton of Melvern; two brothers, Everett and Olin Slingluff, both of Melvern; and 20 grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were four brothers and one sister.