Former Resident Paul Sloan, 66, Dies In Texas

Paul Sloan, 66, former Grinnell resident when he was owner of the Sloan Monument Works here, died Sunday at McAllen, Texas.

Mr. Sloan had made his home in McAllen for the past 20 years. Prior to living in Grinnell he had resided at South English.

Graveside services will be held Friday at 4 p.m. at the family lot in Hazelwood cemetery. Dr. G. S. Bruland, pastor of the Methodist church, will officiate. Friends may call at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home.

He is survived by his wife; a son, John of Big Springs, Texas; and a brother, Raymond of Sigourney.
