

OF ILLINOIS

~~6-4 2-15-1907~~

—Col. W. E. Small, for years a well known grain buyer at Brooklyn died Tuesday at the home of his daughter in Marshalltown. His remains were brought here and sent on to Brooklyn for burial yesterday. Mr. Small was Colonel of the 10th Iowa Inf. Many will remember him through the long litigation which he had with the Rock Island in which he finally secured damages from the railroad for setting fire to his elevator at Brooklyn.
