

Services Saturday At Des Moines For Mrs. Sarah Smith, 79

7-18-1960 142
Services were held at Des Moines Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Sarah M. Smith, 79, Grinnell, who died here last Thursday following a long illness. Burial was at Casey, Iowa.

Mrs. Smith, was retired supervisor of public school nurses at Sioux City. She was born in Rising Sun and attended the University of Wisconsin. Later, she taught school for five years at Casey.

She was a 1910 graduate of the Iowa Methodist hospital school of nursing and served as a nurse in France during World War I. Following the war, she completed additional studies at Western Reserve University.

Also, Mrs. Smith had served as a nurse for the federal bureau of Indian Affairs in Wisconsin and South Dakota. She was supervisor of school nurses at Grand Rapids, Mich., prior to taking a similar post at Sioux City. She retired in 1942.

Mrs. Smith was a member of the Congregational church in Grinnell. (May flower)

One sister, Mrs. Glenn Brinton of Des Moines survives.
