Sy Weston
S.A. "Pat" Smith, of 325 First Ave. S.E. (Allison Hotel), Cedar Rapids, died Monday afternoon at Mercy Hospital in Cedar Rapids.

The son of Patrick and Margaret Ellen Keenan Smith, he was born at Commerce, Iowa, Dec. 20, 1892. His family later moved to Grinnell where he attended Grinnell High School.

On April 7, 1912, he was married to Frances Amie Craemer in Grinnell. The couple had seven children: Doris Smith of Grinnell, Carl J. Smith of Burlington, Thomas V. Smith who died in 1972, Bernard F. Smith who died in 1946, Mrs. Keith (Helen Irene) Paul of Mabel, Minn., Mr. Phyllis Constant of Cottage Grove, Minn., and Larry Smith of Oceanside, Calif.

Mr. Smith was a member of Immaculate Concept, Catholic Church in Cedar Rapids, the Knights of Columbus Lodge in Newton, and the Plumbers and Steamfitters Local No. 387 in Davenport. He had worked on many building projects throughout the U.S., and during World War II was involved in building atomic energy plants. He continued to make Grinnell his home during that period, however. Following his wife's death in 1952, he made his home in Cedar Rapids.

Survivors include his five children; 20 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Vincent Smith of Seattle, Wash., and Paul Smith of Elk River, Minn.; and two sisters, Mrs. Julia Haigg of Foreston, Minn., and Mrs. Nellie Fitzpatrick of Foley, Minn. He was preceded in death by his wife; his two sons; one granddaughter; one great-grandson; two brothers, Bernard and Tom Smith; and two sisters, Margaret Fitzpatrick and Irene Smith.

The Mass of the Resurrection for Mr. Smith was held at 11 a.m. today (Thursday) at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Grinnell, with the Rev. Leo V. Kuebrich, pastor of the church, officiating. Organist was Jack Penne, and pallbearers were Vincent Keenan, Douglas Paul, Dan Smith, Kenny Smith, Mike Smith and Terry Smith. Burial was in the Calvary section of Hazelwood Cemetery.

The Vigil service was held at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home, where friends may call for additional information.
