ROBERT "BOB" SMITH

Robert "Bob" Smith, 63, of Sigourney and formerly of Brooklyn, died Saturday, April 11, in Iowa Methodist Medical Center, Des Moines, following a heart attack.

Smith had finished 40 years with the REC April 1. He planned to retire January 1.

He started with the REC in Brooklyn in April, 1947. In the summer of 1951 he was transferred to the Sigourney office where he had been line supervisor.

Survivors include his wife, Donna of Sigourney; two sons, Steve of San Diego, and Larry of Sigourney; two daughters, Nancy Atwood of West Des Moines, and Janice Pena of Elberon; stepmother, Edna Smith of Milburn; a brother, Donald Smith of Marshalltown, two sisters, Carole Kavanaugh of West Des Moines, and Donna Jean Lathrop of Marshalltown; and eight grandchildren.

Services were scheduled for 11 a.m. Tuesday, April 14, 1987, at the United Presbyterian Church in Sigourney with burial in East Cemetery. Holm's Funeral Home was in charge where a memorial fund has been established.
