

Ann Marie Schultz B C Jan. 13, 1999 (Marvin)

Funeral services were Saturday morning, Jan. 9, at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Brooklyn, in Victor for Ann Marie Schultz, 72, of Malcom, who died Jan. 3, 1999, at her son's home in Yuma, Ariz. The Rev. Richard Okumu of St. Patrick's Catholic Church officiated.

Music was by organist Marilyn Kriegel, and soloist Angie Hawkins sang "The Old Rugged Cross." Pallbearers were Archie Hall, Judd Hansen, Gary Kriegel, Ray Kriegel, Robby James and Marcel Roth. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn.

The daughter of Frank and Catherine Burke O'Laughlin, Ann was born Aug. 18, 1926, in Edenbourne, Pa., where she was raised and educated.

She was married to Marvin Schultz Dec. 3, 1945, in Crafton, Pa. The couple made their home in the Gilman area prior to moving to a farm near Brooklyn in 1968.

Ann worked as a waitress and cook, and was formerly employed with Amana Refrigeration and Char Du Factory in Brooklyn. She was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Brooklyn and a former catechism teacher. Ann held a passion for playing bingo.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, one grandson, Stephen Schultz, one great-grandson, Smoke Griffith, and one brother and sister, Francis O'Laughlin and Catherine Staley.

She is survived by five children and their spouses, James and Roxy Schultz of Yuma, Ariz., Richard and Janet Schultz of Victor, Bess "Kandi" and Dan Griffith of Brooklyn, Katy Schultz of Brooklyn, and Linda Schultz of Belle Plaine, one sister, Patricia James of Crafton, Pa., 12 grandchildren, and 16 great-grandchildren.

Smith Funeral Home, Victor, was in charge of arrangements. Should friends desire, memorial contributions may be made to the Ann M. Schultz Memorial Fund.
