

Beverly Shine

Beverly R. Shine, 69, of Kellogg died of complications of a stroke Saturday, April 27, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Services were conducted Tuesday at the Wallace Family Funeral Home in Newton, with the Rev. John Claussen, pastor of the Pleasantville Christian Church, officiating. Burial will be at Rock Creek Cemetery in rural Kellogg at a later date.

She was born May 27, 1932, in Kellogg and was the daughter of Harmon A. and Lola Mae Bleakney Cooper. She was a 1949 graduate of Kellogg High School.

She was married to Marvin M. Shine May 28, 1961, in Kellogg. She was a lifelong resident of Kellogg.

Surviving are her husband; three sons, Randy Taylor of Galesburg, Earl Taylor of Ogden and Greig Shine of Kellogg; four daughters, Vivian Andrew of Osceola, Jane Runner of Gilman, Diana Chodur of Grinnell and Deb Damman of Kellogg; 18 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; her mother, Lola Cooper of Platte City, Mo.; and one sister, Donna McBrayer of Platte City.

She was preceded in death by her father, one grandson and a sister, Betty Keenan.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Kellogg Volunteer Fire and Ambulance or the Kellogg Garden Club and may be left at the funeral home.